

GIRLS IN SCIENCE 2017

CRYSTAL'S DREADFUL PARTY: A MINERALOGICAL MYSTERY ✨

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28TH

8:30 AM- 4:00 PM

Eastern Oregon University

Help! Crystal Diamond, a geologist at State University, is throwing a Halloween costume party for her friends to show off her mineral collection, but everything goes awry! Is she dead? Is she still alive? What happened to her, and who is to blame? Our team needs your help to solve this mineralogical mystery!

ELIGIBLE STUDENTS

- Girls in grades 6-8
- Only 100 spaces available
- Event typically fills before the deadline!

REGISTRATION INFO

- Cost: $10
-(Includes shirt, supplies, snack, and lunch)
- Registration opens September 18th!
- Spaces are typically offered on a first-come, first-served basis, although preference is given to new Girls in Science participants
- There are also guaranteed spots available for each county in the NEOAHEC region
- No refund for cancellations after October 19th

Learn about Chemistry, Biology, Computer Science, and much more!

Northeast Oregon
Area Health Education Center

ACS
Chemistry for Life®

SOROPTIMIST
Help for Women

REGISTER BY OCTOBER 12TH!

www.neoahec.org/programs/girls-in-science/

Contact Brittany Hargrove at (541) 962-3422 or bhargrove@neoahec.org for more info